1853. WINTER TRADE. 1853.

JOHN D. GARDINER.
WHOLESALE AND RETAIL DEALER IN FOREIGN AND DOMESTIC DRY GOODS!
No. 135 East Water Street, Milwaukee.

Sound the loud timbrel o'er Prairie and River!
Proclaim the glad tidings—Goods cheaper than ever!

IN VIEW of the luxuriant crops in all the great staples of our young and glorious State, and the good prices they at present command, and the consequent increased ability of our farmers to buy, as well as the increased activity of business generally among all classes, the subscriber has been induced to make extra preparations for a large and extensive trade. In anticipation of this increased demand for Dry Goods, he has spent a portion of the past summer and fall east, where he has been engaged in buying one of the largest and most varied stock of Dry Goods that he has ever yet brought into Wisconsin. In buying these Goods he has taken the utmost pains in selecting the best and most fashionable styles and qualities.
His purchases have been made by the Bale, Case and Package direct of the Manufacturers or their Agents, the Importers and at Auction. His facilities for buying, fully warrant him in saying that they are equalled but by few, and excelled by no firm in the trade. The old maxim that "Goods well bought are half sold," has governed him in his purchases, and knowing that he bought them low, he is determined not to be undersold in a fair and legitimate way. Come then, all you who are weary and heavy laden with the yellow coin, or overburthened with good promises to pay, and we will give you rest, and impart comfort to those who are hungry and naked, by selling goods cheaper than ever.
*This fact we desire to keep prominently and permanently before the People—*THAT WE DO NOT PERMIT OURSELVES UNDER ANY REASONABLE CIRCUMSTANCES TO BE UNDERSOLD. Remember it.

Our stock consists in part of the following articles:—

100 bales Sheeting,	10 cases bleached Shirting,
50 do Batts	10 do Canton Flannels,
25 do Wadding,	10 do Denims,
25 do stripe Shirting,	10 do Kentucky Jeans,
10 do Bed Ticking,	5 do Sheeps Greys,
4 do brown Drills,	5 do Tweeds,
10 do Blue Drills,	5 do Sattinetts,

School!

Spelling Schools! Have you forgotten them? When from all the region round about, they gathered into the old log school house, with its huge fire-place, that yawned like the main entrance to Avernus. How the sleigh-bells, the old fashioned bells, big in the middle of the string, and growing "small by degrees and beautifully less" toward the broad, brass buckle—chimed, in every direction, long before night—the gathering of the clans. There came one school, "Master"—give him a capital M, for he is entitled to it—Master and all bundled into one huge, red, double sleigh, strewn with an abundance of straw, and tucked up like a Christmas pie, with half a score of buffalo robes. There half a dozen 'cutters' each with its young man and maiden, they two and no more. And there, again, a pair of jumpers, mounted by a great outlandish looking bin, heaped up, pressed down, and running over, Scripture measure, with small collections of humanity, picked up en route, from a great many houses, and all as merry as kittens in a basket of wool. And the bright eyes, the ripe, red lips that one caught a glimpse of beneath those pink lined, quilted hoods, and the silvery laughs that escaped from the woolen mufflers and fur-tippets they wore then—who does not remember?—who can ever forget them?

The school house has been swept and garnished, boughs of evergreen adorn the smoke stained and battered walls. The little pellets of chewed paper have been all swept down from the ceiling, and two pails of water have been brought from the spring, and set on the bench in the entry, with the immemorial tin cup—a wise provision indeed, for warm work is that spelling!

The 'big boys' have fanned and replenished the fire, till the old chimney fairly jars with the roaring flames, and the sparks fly out of the top, like a furnace—the oriflamme of the battle.

The two 'Masters' are there, the two schools are there, and such a hum, and such a moving to and fro! Will they swarm?

The oaken ferule comes down upon the desk with emphasis. What the roll of a drum is to armies that the 'ruler' is to this whispering laughing, young troop.

The challenged are ranged on one side of the house, the challengers upon the other. Back seats, middle seats, low front seats, all filled. Some of the fathers, and grandfathers, who could, no doubt, upon occasion,

"shoulder the crutch, and show how fields were won,"

occupy the bench of honor near the desk.

Now for the preliminaries: the reputed best speller on each side 'chooses.' 'Susan Brown!' Out comes a round eyed little creature, blushing like a peony. Who'd have thought it! Such a little thing, and chosen first!

'Moses Jones!' Out comes Moses, an awkward fellow, with a shock of red hair, shockingly harvested, surmounting his broad brow. The girls laugh at him, but what he doesn't know in the 'Elementary' isn't worth knowing.

'Jane Murray!' Out trips Jane, flattered as a bride, and takes her place next to the caller. She's a pretty girl, but a sorry speller. Don't you hear the whispers round the house?

'Why, that's John's sweetheart!' John is the leader and a battle lost with Jane by his side, would be sweeter than a victory won, without her.

And so they go on 'calling names,' until five or six champions stand forth ready to do battle, and the contest is fairly begun.

Down goes one after another, as words of three syllables are followed by those of four, and these again, by words of similar pronunciations and divers significations, until only Moses and Susan remain.

The spelling book has been exhausted, yet there they stand. Dictionaries are turned over—memories are ransacked, for

"Words of learned length and thundering sound"

until, by and by, Moses comes down like a tree, and Susan flutters there still, like a leaf aloft that the frost and the fall have forgotten.

Polysyllable follows polysyllable, and by and by Susan hesitates just a breath or two, and twenty tongues are working their way through the labyrinth of letters in a twinkling. Little Susan sinks into the chink left for her on the crowded seat, and there is a lull in the battle.

Then, they all stand in solid phalanx by schools, and the struggle is, to spell each other down. And down they go, like leaves in winter, and the victory is declared for our district, and the school is 'dismissed!'

Then comes the hurrying and bundling, the whispering and glancing, and pairing off, and tumbling in. There are hearts that flutter, not hearts that ache, 'mittens,' that are, and warm, secret hopes that are not realized, and fond looks that are not returned. There is a jingling among the bells at the door; one after another the sleighs dash up, receive their smiling freight, and are gone.

Our Master covers the fire, and snuffs out the candles—don't you remember how daintily he used to pinch the smoking wicks, with fore-finger and thumb, and then thrust each hapless luminary, head first, into the tin socket!—and we wait for him.

The bells ring faintly in the woods, over the hill, in the valley, they are gone. The school house is dark and tenantless, and we are alone with the night.

Merry, care-free company! Some of them are sorrowing, some are dead, and all I fear are changed. SPELL! Ah! the 'spell' that had come over that crowd of young dreamers—over you, over me—will it ever, ever be dissolved! In 'the white radiance of Eternity.'

MILWAUKEE:

TUESDAY:::::::::::::::::::::::::::::::MARCH 7.

For President in 1856,
JOHN P. HALE, of New York.
FOR VICE PRESIDENT,
GEORGE W. JULIAN, of Indiana.

Send on the Remonstrances.

By private advices from Washington, from a reliable source, we learn that two of our Representatives from this State, in the House, are shaky on the Nebraska bill, and one of them committed for it so far, that nothing but the earnest remonstrances of their constituents will prevent their voting for it. Now let every man who values freedom and would prevent the spread of the curse of Slavery into all our free territories, write to their members, send petitions to them, and remonstrate against the bill Personal letters from 5,000 of their constituents would open their eyes wonderfully — There is hope of the defeat of the bill, but every vote from the Free States that can be, must be, secured to Freedom

The Wise Men of the East.

The Syracuse Chronicle very tartly replies to us, in the true spirit of an overseer, in relation to the name of Independent Democracy, which it is trying to force upon the Free Democratic party The same spirit, which it exhibits, was manifested at the Pittsburgh Convention, and met with the rebuke it deserved. It is the spirit of self-sufficiency, which the East has cherished in relation to the West, until they really think it is downright impertinence for a Western man to dissent from the dictum of an Eastern editor.

We shall not imitate the style of the Syracuse Chronicle, which, after exhibiting its knowledge and peculiar breeding, kindly reminds us of our ignorance, and directs us how to "occupy our spare time" It shelters itself under the authority of Senator Chase We would say to the Chronicle, that we have been in the world several years, and have seen a few newspapers during that period—that we did not enlist into Freedom's service at the eleventh hour, and therefore make some allowance for young disciples—that we are well acquainted with Senator Chase's course, and know that it came near making shipwreck of the Free Democratic party—that we never doubted Senator Chase's integrity, but had we all followed his example, and joined the old Hunker party, there would have been an end of the Free Democratic party

If all the Free Soil members of Congress have united in adopting a new name, it does not make the change of name any more appropriate, or the injustice any the less flagrant. The party deliberately adopted its present name. Its members of Congress have no more authority to change that name, than they have to change the party creed, or dictate the party nominations, and the first is just as much a usurpation as the last two would be. It is doing, in a less important matter, what Douglas and Pierce are doing for the Democratic party, in the thrusting upon its acceptance, without consulting it, the repeal of the Missouri Compromise.

It is not so much the change of name, as the principle of the thing, which we oppose. If those whom we send to Congress for specific purposes, may, when they get there, dictate to us—their creators—what our name shall be, and undertake to assume the direction of business we never entrusted to them, we shall soon be under as abject slavery to them, as the old parties are to their office-holders. Resist the first encroachment on the people's rights, is the only safe motto.

The National Era lives on the Free Soil breath of the country Multitudes are dissatisfied with its course party-wise, yet sustain it, because it is an excellent newspaper, and published at Washington. It is a party organ, and it isn't. It assumes no responsibility, and it does assume it. It affects not to lead, and yet, from its very position, does lead—especially those who are taken with names, and who believe in leadership, as the Chronicle does. The National Era has done great good. It has also done some evil. It has weakened the hands of a great many local Free Soil papers. Some have expired for want of the very help extended to it, in their own localities. But it may be that its vigorous life is more important to the cause than the life of a dozen local papers.

Had the Washington Union undertaken to do for the Hunker Democracy, what the National Era has undertaken to do for the Free Democratic party, viz: change its name, we should have said—all impartial men would have said—that it was assuming the province of a dictator. We know of no good reason for acquiescing in assumptions by the Free Soil press, which we should condemn in the pro-slavery press.

We add, in conclusion, that the reply of the Chronicle shows not only its superciliousness, but that in compelling a change of our party name, courtesy and good breeding may be dispensed with. It is not surprising that the editor of the Chronicle, having undertaken the task, should lose its temper.

THE SENTINEL still thinks its informant must have been correct in stating that the Baltimore Platform Resolution was adopted in the City Democratic Convention, as it had its "information from a reliable source." Its Reporter yesterday undertook to brave the falsehood out in the presence of West, Comstock, Watkins, and a large number who were present at the Convention, and assured him he was wrong. Nothing like sticking to a story before election.

NEBRASKA IN MAINE.—The New York Tribune learns that a resolution passed the lower House of the Maine Legislature on the 25th, by nearly a unanimous vote, instructing the Senators and Representatives in Congress from that State to oppose the Nebraska bill so long as it contemplates the abrogation of the Missouri Compromise.

CORRESPONDENCE.

ST. PAUL, MINESOTA TERR., }
February 15, 1854. }

Ed. Daily Free Democrat:

To-day I was in the House of Representatives and listened to the discussion of the Prohibitory Liquor Law. I had become impressed with the opinion that the bill would not pass the House, but was happy to see a majority of one upon a full vote of the House in favor of a more stringent law than the Maine Law bill.—One provision is, that a man found intoxicated shall be taken into custody by any ministerial officer, constable, marshal, or sheriff, and kept securely securely till he gets sober, he paying for the trouble of taking care of himself.—What a capital law that would be for Milwaukee sheriffs, marshals and their deputies, as well as the constables! How much employment it would give them! By the way, however, wouldn't they sometimes have to take care of each other? some of them at least. It is feared the council may kill the bill, but I doubt it; they all seem to be men of good sense as well as morals.

February 18, 1854.

The friends of free trade—as they call themselves—the friends of the liquor trade have called a meeting at the Court House on Monday night.

King Cole, the noted old gentleman, formerly a resident of your city, resides here, and it is said, is doing a flourishing business.

TRAVELER.

Fox River Valley Railroad.

A correspondent of the Sentinel states that the Directors of this Road have abandoned the idea of running it to Waukesha at present. The Directors met at Burlington on the 22d ult., and resolved to put the work under contract from the State Line to Rochester, a distance of 18 miles. The work is well under way from Elgin, Ill., to Richmond, at the South line of the State, and it is the intention of the Company to have the Road in operation to Rochester by December next. The Road will doubtless be continued to this city, direct from Rochester. We presume the Waukesha folks will not fancy this arrangement at all. Some of them have labored diligently and energetically for the construction of the Road to that village, while others, who had political ends to accomplish, tho' pretending to be friendly to the enterprise, have constantly been doing all they could to embarrass its progress. Such enterprises seldom prosper under the supervision of political stock-jobbers, who make everything subservient to their own promotion and aggrandizement.

To the Kenosha Telegraph.

IN 1851 we were nominated, against our will, for Alderman of this Ward. We made no pledges, express or implied, and were not a candidate, in the usual sense of that term.

Last fall, we were falsely represented as one of the getters-up of the People's ticket. We took no part in it, and came reluctantly into its support, when we saw the leading men of the Whig and Free Democratic parties strongly advocating it.

We have always been opposed to the principle of making party nominations for municipal officers, and have advised our readers to do, as we have done—vote for the best men.

If MR. SHOLES chooses, he can correct the misstatements of the Telegraph. We can occupy our columns more profitably than in a reply to its attack upon us, of a column and three quarters.

OHIO SENATOR.—At a caucus of the Democratic members of the Ohio Legislature, on Friday evening last, at Columbus, Mr. Pugh was nominated for U. S. Senator. Sam. Medary, who came out in a letter in favor of the Nebraska bill, a few days ago—for which act the News saw fit to beslaver him with fulsome praise—was thrown overboard, just as all traitors to liberty ought to be. Mr. Medary was appointed minister to Chili by President Pierce, which mission, after drawing an outfit worth over $9,000, he resigned, with the expectation that he would be elected to the U. S. Senate. He has been rewarded according to his deserts, and just as most Northern advocates of the Nebraska bill will be.

EXTREME SENSITIVENESS.—A gentleman was recently prevented from taking the cars on the Great Western Railroad, at Windsor, C. W., by the station-master, because he had indulged in some sarcastic remarks against the Queen. He exhibited a through ticket, which he purchased at Chicago, but it was of no avail. He therefore returned to Detroit and instituted a suit against the Central Line for detention, laying his damages at $15,000. Of course, if he succeeds, the loss will eventually fall upon the Great Western Company.

THE NEWS is in an ecstasy of wo over the nomination of Byron Kilbourn. His election would be the death of poor Shaw. The News can't bear to see a man promoted to office who isn't in favor of Slavery.

THE ELECTION is proceeding with considerable spirit. Much feeling is exhibited by the friends of the different candidates. The sun will rise to-morrow on both victors and vanquished.

FIRE ON STATEN ISLAND.—The mansion of Widow Castleton, on Staten Island, was burnt on the 2d inst. Three men were buried under a fallen chimney, one of whom was taken out dead.

R. R. CONSOLIDATION.—On Thursday night last the stockholders of the Montreal & New York Railroad adopted the amalgamation of that road with the Champlain Road.

PRINTER.—Mr. Nicholson, of the Washington Union, has been elected Printer to the House of Representatives, in place of General Armstrong, deceased, by a vote of 129 to 61.

THERE were but 34 commitments to the Chicago Jail during the month of February, just past.

SENATOR CLAYTON, in his speech [illegible] of the Nebraska Bill, took the ground that the Missouri Compromise was unconstitutional.

GAS WORKS are in process of construction at Peoria, Ill.—to be completed by the first of September next.

STEAMER SOLD.—The new steamer [illegible], launched at [illegible], was recently sold in that city for $60,000.

For the Free Democrat.

Too Late.—No. 2.

BY LILLIAN MAY.

Why art thou here, sweet bird,
Beneath the wintry stars?
I questioned, while I heard
A withered brier stirred
Against my window bars.
Bird of the drooping wing,
And sweetly-moaning mouth,
Thou shouldst be singing south.
What hope or love could bring
Thy little straying feet,
From leaves and roses sweet,
To press the chilly snow,
And feel the cold winds blow,
And stem the wintry sleet?
And the bird answered, "Well, I know,
Another flower will never grow
So beautiful as that which sprung
From out a little sod,
Where lay a flower that faded young
To blossom up with God.
I saw it slowly bud and bloom
Above that angel baby's tomb;
It was a clover, pure and white,
The sweetest, and the best,
That ever opened to the light
Above a baby's breast.
The robin called me, day by day,
With sweet and wooing sound;
What cared I, while my darling lay,
Sweet'ning the hallowed ground.
I waited but to see it die—
It had no other mate—
And then the birds had wandered by
To love beneath a southern sky.
Alas! for me, too late!"

Congressional.

In the House on the 2d inst. a bill was introduced granting the right of way to three Rail Roads, across public lands, from commercial points in California and Oregon. Referred to committee on Railroads.

Leave was asked to introduce a resolution requesting the President to open negotiations with Peru, either for the purchase of half the Chincha Islands, or for the abolition of the Peruvian monopoly. Not granted. The House then went into committee of the whole on the Homestead Bill.

On the 3d inst. in the House various amendments to the Homestead bill were discussed.

The President laid before the House the correspondence between the Secretary of State and Mr. Clay, Charge D'Affaires to Peru, touching the removal of the restriction on the importation of Guano.

The debate in the Senate on the Nebraska Bill was continued till 5 o'clock on the morning of the 4th inst., and was participated in by Cass, Bell, Dawson, Norris, Sumner, Wade, Toucey, Fessenden, Weller, Houston and Douglas, and a few minutes past 5 the vote was taken and the bill passed. Yeas 37, nays 14—as follows:

YEAS—Adams, Atchison, Badger, Bayard, Benjamin, Brodhead, Brown, Butler, Cass, Clay, Dawson, Dixon, Dodge of Iowa, Douglas, Evans, Fitzpatrick, Green, Gwin, Hunter, Johnson, Jones of Tenn., Masterton, Norris, Pettit, Pratt, Rusk, Sebastian, Shields, Stewart, Slidell, Thompson of Ky., Thompson of N. J., Toucey, Weller, and Williams.

NAYS—Bell, Bright, Chase, Dodge of Wis., Fessenden, Fish, Foote, Hamlin, Houston, James, Seward, Smith, Sumner, and Wade.

Toombs and Mallory are sick, but would have voted for the bill. Mr. Allen absent, but wo'd have voted against it. Phelps, Pearce, Cooper, Everett, Wright and Clayton, not voting.

The title of the bill was changed to a bill for the Government of Nebraska and Kansas.

Mr. Cass congratulated the Senate on the triumph of squatter sovereignty.

Senator Walker of Wis., seems to be ignored entirely. His whereabouts when this abominable bill was passed, will probably be a subject of future inquiry among his constituents.

Arrival from California.

The Empire City from Aspinwall on the 22d ult., arrived at New York on the 4th inst., with California dates to the 1st of February.

The Aspinwall Courier of the 22d ult., says Secretary Marcy has instructed the Mail Steamship Company not to pay the tax of ten per cent. imposed on the steamships by the New Grenada Government, informing them that the U. S. Government will not permit such tax to be levied.

An unsuccessful attempt was made to rob Gen. Wool's party while crossing the Isthmus.

A large fire occurred at Guayquil on the 27th of December, destroying $10,000 worth of property.

Peru still unquiet.

Bolivia is threatened every instant with invasion. The Bolivians are about to march upon Lima with, it is said, a force of 30,000 men, but were awaiting the result of the revolution in their own behalf in some of the Peruvian provinces.

SAILED.—The Str. Baltic sailed for Liverpool from New York, on Saturday last, with 120 passengers, among whom was Max Maretzek, the Italian Opera Director.

On the same day the str. Northern Light sailed from New York for San Juan, with a large number of California passengers.

FLOOD.—A tremendous flood occurred on the Congaree river, South Carolina, on Wednesday of last week. 200 yards of the South Carolina R. R. were washed away, and great fears were entertained for the safety of the Trenton and Manchester Road.

HORRIBLE EXPLOSION—Ten Men Killed.—A horrible explosion took place at Falls & Grey's Car Manufactory, in Hartford, Conn., on the 2d inst. Ten men were taken out dead, and fifty more were supposed to be wounded.

LUCKY BAR-TENDER.—The farm in the Perham Gift Lottery, valued at $25,000, was drawn by S. May, a bar-tender in a porter-house in New York.

ADVICES from Mexico to the 19th February, report that Santa Anna has issued a decree, favoring the adoption of a system of reciprocity in navigation.

FIRE.—On Friday night last, several buildings were destroyed by fire at Chicago.

THE New Hampshire election comes on the 14th inst.

CANADA.—The Assembly has passed a bill requiring [illegible] to [illegible].

The Speech of a Veteran.

The Boston papers of yesterday come to us filled with the proceedings of the great anti-Nebraska meeting at Faneuil Hall on Thursday night. Of most of the speeches we have already had reports by telegraph, but the last one made, which was by the venerable JOSIAH QUINCY is still new to our readers, and we now give it place. MR. QUINCY being loudly called for, rose and said:

"What right have you to call upon a man eighty-three years old to address you? Sir, I belong to other times. [A voice in the crowd said, 'No, the ears of the fathers are never deaf to the cries of the children.'] I came here this evening, not only unasked, but with a determination not to speak; and, Sir, what I shall say will be very short, and it will run in a different strain from anything you have heard. I suppose that you expect me to say something about the enormity of this attempt to repeal the Missouri Compromise. Not a word, Sir. [Laughter.] I shall leave that to younger and abler men—to men who are in the current of the times I have been out of it for thirty years. Perhaps you expect also I should say something severe upon the politicians—the leaders of the slave-holding States. Sir, I have nothing to say against them Many of them are great men,—they are true men—they are faithful men—true to their own interests; faithful to their own power And, Sir, they understand this to be the last act in that policy which has been in operation since the year 1832, and indeed from the commencement of the Government. [Cheers.] There were two projects from the beginning. The first was to secure to the slaveholding States the power of controlling the Government at all times; and have they not done it? [Cries of "Yes," "yes."] Have you had but one President in effect, chosen by the people, that was from the free States? The next plan of the policy was to extend the power of the slave-holding States, and for that purpose they bought Louisiana, and for that purpose they made war upon Mexico. And, Sir, what has been their success? They have opened, or if this law passes, they will have opened all the lands of the South that are capable of holding slaves, to the extension of their power. They have opened to themselves a market, and they understand their advantages. What is the consequence of opening this market? A gentleman recently from the South told me that slaves were in such demand, in consequence of the opening of this country, that he knew of one family of some ten or twelve negroes—men, women and children—some of the latter at the breast—and they sold for $600 a head, down to the very child at the woman's breast. A good active slave is worth at this time $1,800. This is the effect of their system of extension. Now this question is, how did they get this power? I said they were true and faithful to their own interests. I wish I could say the same thing, Sir, of the political men of the free States. [Cheers.] Sir, it is not their strength, but our weakness; it is not their union, it is our disunion. And, Sir, they govern the people of the North by the distribution of the funds from the Treasury. They have governed it, and they will continue to govern it, until the people themselves shall understand what the motives of their leaders are, and put them down by force Gentlemen, I said that this was not a new thing. In the year 1807–8, I was a Representative from this district in the Congress of the United States, and had a frequent and close intimacy, and great opportunities for acquaintance with the southern views and opinions, through the medium of a gentleman who was the best representative on the floor of Congress of southern feelings and southern principles. I mean John Randolph. At that time it was the question concerning the embargo? Who supported it in this part of the country? I am sorry to mention it, for I have a great love for the Democracy of the country; no man more so I hold that I am a Democrat, myself, and always have been. But no man could speak with more contempt than Mr. Randolph did of the leaders of the Democracy, who were defending the embargo. I remember that he said to me once, in relation to a northern Member from the neighboring town of Salem, who had made a great speech in favor of the embargo. 'Why, Sir, is that gentleman a merchant?' 'Yes,' said I, 'and a great merchant.' 'He is, eh' Why, Sir,' said he, 'he seems to me like a hog swimming across a river, and cutting his own throat with his fore feet.' [Laughter.] On another occasion, when I told him, 'If you go much further, Mr. Randolph, with the embargo, there will be a union among the people of the North.' 'A Union,' said he, 'a Union!' (Remember, Sir, I do not agree in the opinion, and greatly honor the Democrats, but I must tell it as it was.) 'Why, Mr. Quincy, we of the South can calculate upon the leaders of your Democracy, as we calculate upon our own negroes.' [Great laughter.] That was the thing, Sir, that was the feeling, and I do not believe they care one farthing at the South for this or other meetings of the kind. They don't like them, to be sure. But they feel toward them as we should toward a boy with a cracker in the streets; they don't like the annoyance, to be sure, but as to fear, they have none. The thing is cut and dried, Sir, and if it is not passed at this Congress, it will be at another, do what we can And all I ask, for the last time I shall speak to my fellow-citizens in public, all I ask of the people of the North is to consider their own interests. Be united, act as one man, and then you can get your due control in the affairs of the nation, and you want no more.—N. Y. Tribune.

Whig Triumph in Detroit—O. M. Hyde Elected Mayor by 1500 Majority!

DETROIT, Feb. 6th—8 P. M.—The city charter election took place to-day, and has resulted in the election of O. M. HYDE, the Whig candidate, by a majority of about 1500. All the Whig city ticket is elected except Police Justice, and six of the eight wards have gone Whig by decided majorities.

WE notice in the list of premiums awarded by the Crystal Palace Judges, that the widely-celebrated Chocolate, Cocoa and Broma preparations of Messrs. W. BAKER & Co., of Dorchester, Mass., to whom premiums were not long since awarded by Institutes and Fairs at Boston, New York, Philadelphia and Baltimore, have now received the first premium for superior excellence, and a bronze medal, from the New York Crystal Palace Exhibition of the Industry of all Nations. Their choice preparations, which are for sale by the principal grocers in the United States, have attained a wide celebrity in all parts of the country,—allay rather than induce the nervous excitement attendant upon the use of tea or coffee, in consequence of which they are recommended by the most eminent physicians, and thousands of persons can be found in every State who have experienced great benefit from their use.

REAL ESTATE SALE.—The Oshkosh Courier, of Saturday, says that "lots on the west side of Ferry-st., lying between the river and Main-st., in all from 600 to 700 feet front, were sold last week for $12,000, to J. Fitzgerald and Dr B. S. Henning. More than one half of this property was sold subject to leases, which have from five to nine years to run. A house and lot on the southwest corner of High and Bond streets, sold to P. McCourt for $1500. Eight acres of unimproved land, lying on the north side of the Algoma road, a half mile west of the city limits, was sold to Mr. Ruggles for $900."

THE GERMANS OF CINCINNATI—The following are the Resolutions which were passed by the Germans at their meeting in Cincinnati on Friday last, and were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That we consider the Nebraska Bill, as introduced by Senator Douglas, throwing open to slavery this not yet organized Territory, as a violation of the Constitution of the United States and the Missouri Compromise—a disgrace to America and this age.

Resolved, That we solemnly protest against it in the name of humanity, liberty and justice, and that we will oppose it by all legal means.

Resolved, That the Senators of Ohio by their noble and manly behavior on this question, have met our unqualified approbation.

Resolved, That we call on the friends of liberty, without distinction of party or country, to unite with us in putting down the aggressions of slavery.

Resolved, That we call on the Legislature of Ohio earnestly to express their opinion on the Nebraska bill.

Resolved, That Senator Douglas, by this act, has forfeited the esteem of every citizen who has the interests of liberty at heart.

COLLEGES—There are 120 colleges in the U. S. Of these, sixteen are under the direction of the Baptists; seven are Episcopalian: thirteen are Methodist; eleven are Catholic; while in most of the remainder, the religious sect having the control is either the Presbyterian or the Congregationalist. These Colleges have 1000 prosperous and about 11,973 students. In the New England Colleges, last year, there were 2,163 students, of whom about one sixth were preparing to become preachers.

There are in the States, 44 Theological Seminaries, with about 1,362 students in connection with them. Of these, 225 are in the Congregational, 491 in Presbyterian, 40 in Methodist, and 270 in Baptist Seminaries. Adding to this the number in the Colleges, we have an aggregate of 11,973 who are in Colleges and Seminaries preparing to occupy the Protestant pulpit.

The two cent newspapers of New York talk of raising their prices to three cents per copy.

First Ward School.

MR EDITOR: Having attended, on Friday last, an exercise in the First Ward School in this city, permit me to express the pleasure and gratification which that visit afforded me

The exercise consisted of music, composition and declamation.

The music was good, well selected and cheery, and calculated to enliven and inspire the orators with the feeling to do the best they could

The compositions were handed in to the teacher sometime during the week, and from those he selected and read; and they certainly showed, that though they were the composition of children at the public school, yet even there, mind may be trained to habits of thought, as well as in our higher schools and academies.

The declamations were good, better than would be supposed by any who have not heard them Two or three of them I think I never heard excelled, even by college-bred declaimers Master Graham will make, if he continues to improve, a most graceful orator. With the one who spoke a piece about the Moon playing bo-peep in the sky, I was pleased; also, with the Indian resolve. But space would fail me to say all I wish in regard to it. Yet I would say to parents of this Ward, or any other in the city, and to those who have the interests of education at heart, you know not what you miss by not calling in at the schools some Friday afternoon If you do so once, you will not need to be solicited the second time.

Mr Griffith, principal, and the corps of teachers in the First Ward, are endeavoring to elevate the standard of public school education in this city, and they look to parents and friends of education for encouragement. This may be extended in various ways. Visitation is the easiest.

Mr Griffith informed me that he thought their exercises would be better next Friday afternoon He proposes to have a declamation on the Nebraska Bill, another on slavery, &c, &c A LOOKER ON IN VIENNA

MARCH 6 —John Watkins vs John White and Herman S Page The jury in this case returned the following verdict:

"The jury find for the defendants, and find they were lawfully in possession of the property under a writ of Replevin; also, that the interest of defendants in the property was $75,32."

The jury award damages to the defendants for the wrongful detention of the property at 6½ cents.

The sloop Lady Ann, Capt. Clark, arrived here early on Saturday morning from Kenosha, with a cargo of 20,000 of brick. This little craft made almost regular trips between this port and Racine during the winter of 1852-3, but this is her first appearance this season.

The schooner Union arrived in port yesterday morning from Racine, with a cargo of wood, making the third trip she has performed this season.—Chicago Tribune, 6th inst.

M & W. R R Co —We learn from one of the Directors of this Company, that no obstacle now prevents the Company from speedily extending their road to Columbus. By a recent organization of the Board, a majority are in favor of extending it. A resolution was passed at the meeting on the 21st February to cause the road to be finally located, and put under contract to Columbus, as soon as a small amount of additional stock subscriptions can be obtained. The surveying party are expected to commence at Watertown this week, and locate the line as soon as possible.—Columbus Rep

LOOK OUT for Altered Bills.—We have been shown a one-dollar bill on the Racine Bank, altered to a five by the pasting operation. A figure 5 is cut from another bill, and ingeniously pasted over the figure 1 in the left-hand corner, and the figure on the opposite corner is torn off. The letters "FIV" are pasted over the letters "ON" in the body of the bill.—Ib.

U. S. STEAMER MICHIGAN.—Capt. Bigelow, of Chicago, has been superseded in the command of the government steamer on the Lakes, by Commander Nichols.

FEMALE MEDICAL COMMENCEMENT.—The third Annual Commencement of the Female Medical College of Pennsylvania, was held at Musical Fund Hall, on Saturday morning, and as usual attracted a large audience. Among the throng was a large number of the Society of Friends, and a numerous delegation of the male students of the various Medical Colleges were also present. The platform was occupied by several clergyman, the Faculty of the college, and a number of the students of the Institution. At 11 o'clock the graduates were introduced upon the platform, and the exercises were then opened with a prayer by the Rev. Mr. Dickinson. The Degree of Doctor of Medicine was conferred upon Mrs. Lucinda R. Brown, of Galveston, Texas; Miss Elizabeth H. Bates of Morris, Otsego Co., N. Y.; Miss Minna Elleger, of Germany; and Miss Elizabeth G. Shattuck, of Philadelphia.—Philadelphia Ledger.

FIRST USE OF GAS.—In the year 1792, Mr. Murdoch made use of gas in lighting his house and office at Redruth, in Cornwall, England, where he then resided. The mines at which he worked being distant some miles from his house, he was in the constant practice of filling a bladder with coal gas, in the neck of which he fixed a metallic tube, with a small orifice, through which the gas issued: this being ignited, served as a lantern to light his way for the considerable distance he had nightly to travel. This mode of illumination being generally unknown, it was thought by the common people that magical art alone could produce such an effect, and the discoverer actually run some risk of personal inconvenience from the prejudice of his narrow minded neighbors.

A NOVEL SUIT.—We have recently heard of a rather novel suit, brought by a gentleman who attended the Odd Fellows' ball in the city, a couple of weeks since, against Mr. Rich, the person who superintended and got up the supper. It appears that one of the waiters in attendance accidentally upset a service of coffee upon the dress of the lady accompanying the gentleman who has brought the suit, entirely spoiling the garment, which was valued at $75. The protector of the lady has prosecuted Mr. Rich to recover the value of the dress.—Troy Whig.

Wendell Phillips delivered to a crowded audience last night, at the Tabernacle, an Anti-Slavery and Disunion lecture, and he was much applauded The time was, and very recently, that such a lecture in this city would not have been tolerated, much less applauded; but the change in the public sentiment of the North is such that all faith in Southern honor and fidelity to compacts is departing under the atrocities now openly advocated in Congress.—N. Y. Tribune, March 1.

LIQUOR SELLING IN PITTSFIELD.—The citizens of Pittsfield, Pike county, have held public meetings recently and raised a fund for the purpose of buying and destroying all the liquor in the town They accomplished their object —got the pledge of the dealers to sell no more —burnt all the liquor they got, that did'nt have too much water in it to be combustible—and appointed a committee to "take active measures on any new attempt to revive the liquor traffic in Pittsfield."—Chicago Press.

"OLD SAM."—After Gen. Houston had addressed the Senate in opposition to the Nebraska bill, a Senator came forward and complimented him for his courage and honesty. "I claim some honesty," replied the General, "but no courage. Courage, would have been necessary to enable me to violate my convictions of rights, not to follow them."

A Gold Chain, about four feet and a half long, composed of eighty rings, on each of which were engraved different figures, was lately turned up by a ploughshare, near Geomieux, in the Cotes du Nord. The French paper which mentions the fact, adds that each ring is estimated to be worth 12 francs.

WASHINGTON, March 3.—Gardner Suicide. —Coroner's Jury commenced an investigation this evening, when a post mortem will be held. It is not certain that the case is suicide—overwrought feeling, it is thought, may have been the cause.

Further Particulars.—On entering the cell where Gardiner was confined, he was observed to drink some water—throwing his head back, and it is supposed he took poison. He was seized with convulsions immediately after, giving a letter to his brother. He remarked he was going before a Judge who would not pronounce him guilty, and expired in great agony.

He was thirty six years old, had the education and manners of a gentleman and was engaged to be married to a lady in Georgetown.

WASHINGTON, March 6 —In the House today, Mr. Appleton presented the resolution of the Mass. legislature, in favor of cheap ocean postage.

Mr. Fuller presented a resolution of the Maine Legislature in opposition to the claims in the Nebraska bill, repealing the Missouri Compromise. Both sets of resolutions were laid on the table and ordered printed.

House went into committee on the homestead bill.

Mr. Richardson, U. S Consul at Trieste, has been removed by the Austrian Government, on the ground of having given expressions of opinion, calculated to interrupt the present good understanding between the two countries.

The block of stone which the Pope sent as a contribution to the Washington Monument was smashed to pieces by some unknown person, last night.

The Homestead Bill was reported in the House at 3½ o'clock P. M. A motion was made by Mr. Good, of Va., to lay it upon the table in order to get a test vote. Motion lost— 60 to 74.

Thos. Devin Riley, the Irish Exile, died in this city, last evening. He had been sick several days.

Fishing for Locomotives in Lake Erie.

BUFFALO, March 2.—Mr. Green, the far-famed diver, on Saturday last, found two locomotives in the lake, fourteen miles above Grand River. They were about a mile and a quarter from shore, in 22 feet of water. They will be got up as soon as the ice disappears. They were lost two years ago, last fall, off a vessel during a severe storm.

CUMBERLAND, March 5.—The recent strikes of the miners in the coal regions here, it is feared, will cause serious trouble, if not bloody riot. The strikers went to several of the miners and forced those laboring there, to quit immediately. It is reported that several hundred miners are arriving from New York, for the purpose of aiding the rioters.

HARRISBURGH, March 3.—The House, this afternoon, considered the Prohibitory Law amendment, striking out all after the enacting clause and inserting a simple submission of the question of Prohibition to the people, was lost —yeas 43, nays 49.

CHARLESTON, March 4.—The steamer Corwin arrived to-day from Havana, with despatches for Washington, detailing the seizure of the steamer Black Warrior and the schooner J. R. Giddings, for infringement of Revenue laws.

Accidents on N. Y. Railroads.—During the year 1853, the whole number of persons carried in the cars on 20 railroads, in New York, was 8,174,364, and the number of miles traveled 397,272,298. The number of persons killed was 136—one for every 36,115,663 miles traveled; and the number injured 73—one for every 49,659,037 miles traveled. A classification of the accidents is as follows:

	Killed.	Injured.
Jumping off or on trains in motion..	14	5
Fell or thrown from train.........	19	8
Collision of trains..............	9	13
Trains thrown off the track........	5	5
Run over while walking, standing or lying on the track..............	57	17
Collisions with vehicles at road crossings.....................	10	2
At work or standing by trains......	5	16
Standing on platforms.............	3
Defective machinery...............	7	4
Other accidents..................	7	3

HIGH RENTS.—The New York Mirror gives a few samples of the way in which rents are going up in New York:

Mr. Christadoro, the celebrated "artist in hair," who has occupied No. 5 Astor House for some years, at a rent of $1,200 per annum, has just been notified by Mr. Astor, that after the first of May next, the rent will be raised to $3,750 a year! The stores in front of the Metropolitan Hotel, which have been bringing $600, have been raised to $2,000. And so it goes with flour at $15 a barrel, and a fair prospect of running it up to $20. No wonder the little girl told her papa if bread got to be so dear, she must live on pound cake.

REFORM IN MASSACHUSETTS.—The Legislature of Massachusetts has passed a Plurality Law, which provides that in all elections hereafter holden for the choice of town, city, or county officers by the people, the person receiving the highest number of votes shall be declared elected. When ever two or more persons are to be elected to the same office, the several persons to the number required to be chosen, having the highest number of votes, shall be declared elected. The act does, not apply to State officers and Members of Congress, who are still to be chosen under the old majority system.

SENATOR HAMLIN.—We have seen a letter from Senator Hamlin, of Maine, to a gentleman of this city, in which he gives his views of the bill as follows:—"I regard the whole Nebraska scheme, in its present form, as an outrage, and, if followed up, it will produce infinite mischief." Boston Commonwealth.

Holloway's Ointment and Pills—EXTRAORDINARY CURE OF A BAD LEG.—Mr. John Allen, of No. 17 Denmark street, Leicester, was afflicted with a bad foot for three years, during which time he was under medical treatment without obtaining any relief, or even mitigation to his sufferings. He was strongly advised to have his foot amputated, but this operation he positively objected to, and after lingering the same time longer in dreadful agony, he commenced using Holloway's Ointment and Pills, and by continuing these invaluable medicines for a comparatively short period, he was completely cured, and his foot is now as sound as ever; he, therefore, recommends these remedies to others similarly afflicted. mar1d1w

EXHIBITION OF 1854.

☞ NOTICE is hereby given, that the Crystal Palace remains open, and that the Exhibition of 1854 will be as attractive and brilliant as that of the past year.

In the several Departments of ART, SCULPTURE, MACHINERY, MINERALOGICAL CABINET, RAW PRODUCE, and MANUFACTURED ARTICLES, the attractions of the Exhibition are such, as to be worthy of the most careful examination.

In Sculpture.

The Colossal Equestrian Statue of Washington, by Marochetti; the Amazon, by Kiss; our Savior and his Apostles, by Thorwaldsen; and upward of Three Hundred original works in marble and bronze, by the first Artists of this country and Europe.

In Painting.

The Gallery contains over Six Hundred Paintings by the principal Artists of both hemispheres. It is by far the most extensive ever opened to the American public.

The Mineralogical Cabinet,

Organized by Professor Silliman, and collected from every part of the United States and Europe, exhibits the vast mineral resources of the world, and is one of the finest in the country.

The Machine Arcade

Contains upward of Three Hundred Machines in motion, many of which are among the most wonderful specimens of human ingenuity.

The Agricultural Department,

Organized by Col. B. P. Johnson, contains hundreds of specimens of the most curious and valuable implements used in this peculiarly American branch of Industry.

The Government of the United States

Has contributed Instruments from the Coast Survey Office, and the arms of the Union. And through the kindness of Foreign Governments,

The choicest productions of the Royal Factories of Europe are here exhibited, Porcelain from Sevres and Dresden; Ancient Arms and Armor from the Tower of London, of the highest interest; Mosaics from the Workshops of the Vatican, together with countless objects from Turkey, Japan, Syria and the Holy Land, Egypt, and the different Countries of Europe, North and South America.

☞ All these are contained in a Building of unequalled beauty, and of dimensions far exceeding any other in the United States.

☞ Circulars, with further particulars, will be furnished on application to the Secretary of the Association, Crystal Palace, New York. feb23d1m

THE FAR-FAMED MEDICINE!
HOLLOWAY'S PILLS!

THESE PILLS being composed entirely of medicinal herbs are of a most harmless nature, while the extraordinary virtues they possess have rendered them universally popular in nearly every part of the world. The immense success they have met with throughout the States is most extraordinary, owing, it is presumed, to their wonderful efficacy in the cure of Billious complaints and disorders of the Liver and Stomach. Persons who persevere in using them in accordance with the directions, seldom fail in being restored to health.

Weakness and Debility.—Restoration to Health of a Gentleman, aged 45, when at Death's Door.

Copy of a Letter from the Rev Charles Smith, dated Noton, St. Philips, near Bath, Somersetshire, Aug. 17, 1853. To PROFESSOR HOLLOWAY—

Sir: A Mr Joseph Puxton, formerly a resident of this place, had been in a declining state of health for upwards of three years, gradually wasting away to a shadow by nightly perspirations and want of appetite, which caused great uneasiness to his friends, as he had consulted various medical men in Bath, without effect. He at last used your Pills, and under Providence was restored to health by their means. He lately emigrated to New York, and has just written to say, that he was never better in health, and desired me to acquaint you with the circumstance. I ought also to mention, that my wife had derived great benefit from the use of your Pills.

I remain, sir, yours respectfully,
CHAS. SMITH, Dissenting Minister.

A Permanent Cure of a Diseased Liver, of Many Years' Duration.

Copy of a Letter from Mr. Gamis, Chemist, Yeovil, to Professor Holloway.

Dear Sir. In this district your Pills command a more extensive sale than any other proprietary medicine before the public. As a proof of their efficacy in Liver and Billious Complaints, I may mention the following case: A lady of this town, with whom I am personally acquainted, for years was a severe sufferer from disease of the Liver and digestive organs. Her medical attendant assured her that he could do nothing to relieve her sufferings, and it was not likely she could survive many months. This announcement naturally caused great alarm among her friends and relations, and they induced her to make a trial of your Pills, which so improved her general health, that she was induced to continue them until she received a perfect cure. This was twelve months ago, and she has not experienced any symptoms of relapse, and often declares that your Pills have been the means of saving her life. I remain, Dear Sir, yours truly,

July 23d, 1853. (Signed) J. GAMIS.

These celebrated Pills are wonderfully efficacious in the following complaints:

Ague	Dropsy	Inflammation	Sore Throats
Asthma	Dysentery	Jaundice	Stone & gravel
Billious Complaints	Erysipelas	Liver Complaints	Secondary symptoms
Blotches on the Skin	Female Irregularities	Lumbago	Tic Douloureux
Bowel complaints	Fevers of all kinds	Piles	Tumors
Colics	Fits	Rheumatism	Ulcers
Constipation of the Bowels	Gout	Retention of Urine	Venereal Affections
Consumption	Head-ache	Scrofula or King's Evil	Worms of all kinds
	Indigestion
	Debility

Weakness from whatever cause, &c., &c.

Sold at the establishment of Professor HOLLOWAY, 244 Strand, (near Temple Bar,) London, and also at his House in New York. Orders for Medicines in the States, addressed "T HOLLOWAY, New York," will receive due attention. Sold also also by all respectable Druggists and Dealers in Medicines throughout the United States, in Boxes at 37½ cts., 87 cts. and $1.50 cts. each. To be had Wholesale of the principal Drug houses in the Union.

☞ There is considerable saving by taking the larger sizes.

WISCONSIN EXPRESS COMPANY.

THE UNDERSIGNED would once more announce to the public that they still continue to run a Daily Express from Milwaukee to Janesville, and from Janesville to Milwaukee, leaving Milwaukee every evening, and Janesville every morning, touching at intermediate stations. They send a trusty agent over the Road daily, who will receive and deliver all goods and packages that may be entrusted to his care. The undersigned are confident that it will be for the interest of merchants, farmers, mechanics and others, who may wish to purchase goods at Milwaukee, or send packages of any description to any point on the Road, to entrust their business to them, who, for a reasonable charge, will faithfully and without delay, transact their business, and thus save them their time and expense. In consequence of our intimate acquaintance with the various points to which goods and packages have been directed, and the carefulness of our Agents, we have not lost a single package, nor incurred any losses in consequence of goods being damaged, during the time we have been engaged in the business.

CAUTION.

THE Public are cautioned against using Baking powder, Cream Tartar, or other Acids, for rising bread, &c without satisfying themselves that they are pure It is well known to the wholesale dealers in these articles that the impure article contains Alum, Lead, Lime and other injurious ingredients. Pure Baking Powders cannot be sold so as to be very profitable to wholesalers, consequently the greater their efforts to sell an impure article The manufacturer of Reed's Baking Powder has an article that has been analyzed and found to contain only 1-100th part of impurities, and, is consequently perfectly safe.— This is written merely as a caution, as the manufacturer has already more orders than he can fill Reed's Baking Powders, pure Cream Tartar and Soda, at wholesale and retail, at 235 and 237 East Water st , Milwaukee. Orders to be filled must invariably be accompanied with the money January, 1854 ja26

BOOTH'S INK FOR SCHOOLS.

EAST SAGINAW, Mich , Aug 29, 1853

W. W. BOOTH

Dear Sir —I feel myself to be under weighty obligations to you for the dozen bottles of your Superior Black Ink Several bottles are being used in my school, with most gratifying satisfaction We hear not that common complaint of "poor pens," which we so often hear where an interior or ordinary article of ink is used 'Tis not its jetty, black and flowing smooth surface alone that gives it a superiority over other articles of the same name, but the readiness with which it always flows from the pen and the property which effectually prevents metallic pens from corroding under all ordinary circumstances. I can most cheerfully recommend its introduction into our primary schools as being precisely adapted to the use of children. Respectfully Yours &c
